TRIPLE CRASH ON NATIONAL

Three cars figured in a triple crash on the National road east of Stilesville about 11:30 o'clock Wednesday night. A Ford coupe, reported to belong to a man living south of Cloverdale, collided with a California tourist, wrecking both cars and turning the Ford upside down on the pavement. Before the Ford could be moved an eastbound truck loaded with livestock, plowed into, the Ford and completed demolishing it. The truck also was damaged. No one was injured in the triple crash, according to reports.

VIADUCT NEAR COMPLETION

HAMMOND, Ind., June 4 (UP)— Engineers in charge of construction of the two million dollar viaduct in Calumet City, which will provide a new outlet from the Calumet section to Chicago, have announced that the structure will be opened for traffic June 15.

est span in Cook county outside of Chicago, will be held July 4. The span, which is over the Calumet river, measures 3,600 feet from approach to approach.

REV. RAGSDALE POPULAR AT BAINBRIDGE

DEPAUW STUDENT MINISTER LAUDED BY ONE OF PARISHIONERS

The Rev. Ray Ragdsdale, the young athletic preacher, was given a dinner reception after the morning service last Sunday by members of his congregation. The Methodist church in Bainbridge perhaps never had a more popular pastor than the Rev. Ragdsdale has proven to be in the six months that he has preached here, although this church has had some notable pastors. Among those who started their ministry here was the lamented Dr.
E. S. Shumaker, who became a national character in the cause of prohibition and who virtually sacrificed his life in the cause of reform. Dr. Shumaker began his work here when he was only 18 years of age.

Another eminent divine who started his ministry in this little town is the talented editor of the Methodist paper, the Rev. E. C. Wareing, now known and beloved throughout the religious world. Many other men now well known to the church-going public, have ministered to the people of this church. Dr. Gobin was once minister here.

The Rev. Ragdsdale is very popular with the people and has united the congregation as no other minister has in years. The young people especially have become active and take much interest in the Sunday school and church. During the last winter he has added twenty to the membership of the church and has a live troop of Boy Scouts to his credit.

These are some of the facts that come to the mind of one of his admiring parishioners.

DANVILLE AND PLAINFIELD GOLFERS HERE THURSDAY

About fifty-five golf players from Danville and Plainfield held a tourney at the Greencastle Country Club all day Thursday. The golf match was to be followed with a dinner at the Club house this evening.

DARRELL JONES IS SENTENCED

ALLEGED COMPANION OF WIL-LIAM KLEIN GETS TEN YEARS

Darrell Hall Jones, 17, of Waveland, who was said to have confessed to several robberies in Indianapolis, Crawfordsville and Danville was sentenced to serve ten years in the Indiana reformatory on his plea of guilty on charges of robbery by Judge Frank P.
Parker in the Marion county criminal court. Jones was sentenced in connection with the alleged attempt to rob Miss Edith Coleman, of Indianapolis. His companion, Ed Saylor, received a similar sentence several days ago.

Crawfordsville police have an affidavit against Jones charging him with being the companion of William Klein of Racoon, in the robbery of Charles Moody, Browns Valley storekeeper, about six weeks ago. Klein was arrested by Putnam county authorities and taken to Crawfordsville where he was sentenced to ten to ten years in the state reformatory. Jones was implicated in the Browns Valley holdup by Klein.

FACES CHARGE OF ASSAULTING FILLMORE BOY

HENDRICKS COUNTY YOUTHS FACE CHARGES OF ASSAULT AND BATTERY

THREATENING NOTES RECEIVED

Carl Broadstreet Had Been Warned To Cease Attention To Miss Amy Crowe

Two Hendricks county youths, living near New Winchester, are charged with assault and battery on Carl Broadstreet, age 17 years, of Fillmore, in affidavits filed in the Putnam Circuit court Wednesday by Broadstreet.

One of the youths, Richard Shover, age 19 years, surrendered to Prosecutor Marshall Abrams Wednesday and was released in custody of his parents, pending a further investigation. The other youth is Lester Johnson, against whom officers admitted they had no conclusive evidence. He was not arrested. Officers said other youths were involved in the attack.

Broadstreet was attacked in Fillmore the night of May 16 by two men, one of whom struck him in the chest with a blunt instrument, inflicting a painful wound. Broadstreet lashed out with his fists, striking one of the men in the mouth and loosening his teeth. Both youths fled at the approach of other persons shouting back that they were not through with Broadstreet.

The attack occurred as Broadstreet was enroute to the home of Miss Amy Crowe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Nicholas Clements of Fillmore, with whom he was keeping company.

It was said officers in Hendricks county have been searching for a youth with loosened teeth and furnished local officers with the clue that Shover was having his teeth attended at North Salem.

Broadstreet was believed to have been attacked by the same persons who mailed him a threatening note and who pinned two other notes on the home of Miss Crowe. These notes warned Broadstreet to cease his attentions to Miss Crowe and also told Miss Crowe that if Broadstreet called on her again he would be killed.

Broadstreet was stabbed in the chest but not seriously injured in the attack. It was reported that another attempt on him was made last Saturday night when several shots were fired near the home of Miss Crowe while he was there. It was said Broad-street feared to leave and stayed at the Clements home all night.

Authorities here said that sending threatening literature through the mails is a violation of the U. S. postal regulations.

The threatening letter sent through the mail to Broadstreet was as follows:

"Notice: If you ever go to see Amy Crowe again you will be killed." Notices pinned to the door of the home where Miss Crowe lives were worded as follows:

"If Carl Broadstreet ever comes down to see you again he will be killed. Last warning. He has been warned before."

"Carl did not take my warning so he can take what comes. He will get his soon."

All of the warnings were signed with a diamond shaped figure between two dots and all were printed with pencil on cheap writing paper.

BACKS ROOSEVELT

MANCHESTER - BY - THE - SEA, Mass., June 4 (UP)—Colonel Edward M. House, advisor to President Wilson, will do "everything possible" to secure the Democratic nomination of 1932 for Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York.

The colonel, who will be 73 on July 26, told the United Press at his summer home here today that his "everything possible" might not be a whole lot "because my health can be described as only fair, and I'm afraid I will not be able to take a very active part in the matter."

NEW PLAN OF AUTO TAX

WEST BADEN, Ind., June 4 (UP)— A new principle of automobile taxation, designed to check pyramiding of taxes, and diversion of motor revenues to other than road purposes, was adopted by the American Automobile Association, in its session here today.

Taxation would be limited to two forms, one the equivalent of a property tax, and the other a gasoline tax, and imposition and collection would be vested in a single agency—the state—under the new code.

TWO DROWN IN WHIRLPOOL

MT. VERNON, Ind., June 4, (UP) —William Bryant, 47, war veteran and treasurer of the local Elks' lodge, and Harvey Breeze, 37, exalted ruler of Mt. Vernon Elks, drowned last night when their skiff capsized in the Ohio river near here.

Carl Clemens, Roscoe U. Barker, and Edward Alles, publisher of the Mt. Vernon Democrat, were also in the craft but escaped by clinging to the overturned boat. Breeze and Bryant perished while attempting to swim to shore, 30 yards away. Their bodies were not recovered early today.
Rivermen blamed a whirlpool, which sucked the stern of the boat beneath the surface, for the accident.

LINDY PLANS PACIFIC HOP THIS SUMMER

HERO OF NEW YORK-TO-PARIS FLIGHT TO TAKE WIFE ALONG

AERIAL TOUR OF ORIENT

Col. Charles A. Lindbergh Announces The Trip Will Be Made By Easy Stages

WASHINGTON June 4 (UP) Chas.
A. Lindbergh, who won fame 4 years ago by making the first non-stop flight across the Atlantic, is making plans to fly across the Pacific with his wife and four children and China, it was learned today at the state department.

Lindbergh outlined his plans today to the state department, explaining he would cross the Pacific by easy stages avoiding a long overwater flight. His definite route has not been worked out but he is expected to follow the northern route.

Lindbergh told under secretary of state William R. Castle he expected to use the low-wing monoplane in which he established a speed record across the United States. It will be equipped with pontoons.

Lindbergh emphasized his desire to make the trip purely for pleasure and said he would proceed cautiously so as to avoid exposing Mrs. Lindbergh to danger.

In taking Mrs. Lindbergh, the former Anne Morrow, daughter of Senator Dwight Morrow of New Jersey, Lindbergh will have a companion who is a skilled aviatrix. Ever since the pair was married Mrs. Lindbergh has flown with her husband and recently received a pilot's license in her own right.

State department officials emphasized that the tour had no official significance, being merely an adventurous pleasure trip for the personal enjoyment of the Lindberghs.

The jaunt will be the third international tour the flying Colonel has made since he came into the spotlight four years ago by spanning the Atlantic alone in his spirit of St. Louis.
Following that famous journey, he flew to Mexico and later on a goodwill trip around Central and South American countries.

day afternoon at 2 o'clock. Prof. Munsey, of Brazil, will be the speaker.

bers of the American Legion will atington as pastor of First church from Greencastle where he was connected with the administrative department of DePauw university as assistant to the president, a position he had held from 1923 to 1930. He has also served as alumni secretary of that institution. He was graduated from the institution in 1910 and afterwards preached in various cities in Massachusetts and Illinois.

The many Bloomington friends of the Rev. McLean will congratulate him on the high honor that is to be conferred upon him by his alma mater.

ANTI-FASCISM NOT TOLERATED BY MUSSOLINI

BLUNT DECLARATION ISSUED IN CONTROVERSY WITH
THE HOLY SEE

REFERS TO PAPAL EMBLEM

Fascist Party Section Directors In Italy Get Strict Orders From Rome Today

ROME, June 4, (UP)—The government stood today on a blunt declaration that the Fascist party would refuse to tolerate anti-Fascist activities "under any flag," in the controversy with the Holy See.

The directorate of the Fascist party, headed by Premier Benito Mussolini, issued a communique reiterating that certain sections of the Azione Catolica, Catholic layman's organization, were either openly or secretly hostile to Fascism.

"The directorate is determined it will not tolerate anti-Fascism," the communique said, "nor such activities find refuge or protection under any flags, old or new."

The reference to flags was interpreted to mean the papal emblem, flown since the sovereignty of the pope again was recognized in the Lateran treaty signed early in 1929.

This attitude of suppression of all anti-fascist activities will be defended "against anyone at any cost," the communique said. The Fascist party's directorate ordered the directors of its 9,000 sections in Italy to inspire their party sections to action in upholding this attitude. Respect for the Catholic church, however, was expressed.

The directorate has examined polemics aroused by the proved attitude of certain sections of the Azione Catolica, the communique said. "While reaffirming our profound and unchanged respect for the Catholic religion and its supreme chief, its ministers and temples, the directorate declares in the most explicit manner that it is firmly determined not to tolerate anti-Fascism."

"The directorate orders directors of its sections to inspire action toward this policy, remembering that those who fell for the revolution demand that it be defended inflexibly, against anyone at any cost."

Despite the firm attitude outlined in the communique, negotiations for a peaceful and early settlement of the controversy which has aroused the nation were understood to be progressing rapidly toward a successful conclusion.

A frankly conciliatory statement was issued by the Vatican, although it was said that police measures, including many arrests, had been taken against prominent members of the Catholic youth's society, which Fascists accused of political activity.

However, the Vatican's note enumerated extenuating circumstances condoning the government's action in closing Catholic clubs throughout Italy.

Woman Wounded During Robbery

MAN AND WIFE SURPRISED
LOOTING STORE AT LIZ-TON THURSDAY

INDIANAPOLIS, June 4 (UP)—A 20-year old bride was in a hospital here today with more than 40 shot gun pellets in her body, inflicted when she and her husband were surprised while looting a store at Lizton. Sol Ellis, proprietor of the store, fired at the couple as they were escaping in an auto.

The bride was Mrs. Roxie Mc-Creary, married March 30 to James R. McCreary. The husband admitted attempting the theft, police said, but maintained that his wife was innocent.

McCreary told authorities that he had been out of work for many weeks and had planned the robbery to obtain food. He said his wife stayed in the auto while he entered the store.

Early today the couple awoke Dr.
Joseph Storey here and asked for medical care. Dr. Storey called police, who broke down McCreary's story that his wife had been shot by accident.

back alimony, for support of their six-year old daughter.

the Indiana law school in Indianapolis.

exercises in the same building.

MAYORS WILL OPPOSE GAS RATE CHANGE

LOCAL MAYOR UNDECIDED AS TO WHETHER THIS CITY WILL JOIN IN FIGHT

KOKOMO, Ind., June 4, (UP)—Officials of 33 Indiana cities affected by the recent public service commission approval of the term system for billing gas consumers, replacing the former cubic foot measurement, have been invited by Kokomo authorities to join in united opposition to the change.

Mayor Henry Quigley announced that he has written Mayor McCarthy of Washington, president of the Mayor's Association, asking him to call a meeting of mayors of all the affected cities, in order that a unified course of action may be laid out.

Newcastle has already promised support in the fight, Mayor Quigley said. He believes that the public service commission ruling is not legal, and may be set aside by court action.

Gas company officials have contended that the new method of measuring gas consumption does not alter the price to the consumer, and was sought only because it offered a more practical method of measurement.

Mayor W. L. Denman of Greencastle stated Thursday that he did not know as yet whether this city would join in the protest against the term base for billing gas consumers in Greencastle. He said a full investigation would be made before any action was taken.

START PAVING SOUTH OF SPENCER THIS WEEK

Grading operations on state road 46 between Spencer and Ellettsville shifted from two miles from the Monroe-Owen line to Ellettsville Tuesday. The grading gang starting operations at Ellettsville will work this way until they reach a point where grading operations ceased Monday. In the meantime the laying of concrete will start at the point near the state park entrance. Work is expected to start at that point the latter part of this week or the first of next.

The change in the grading was made so that the concreting gang could start work. All supplies are being hauled to a point about midway of the stretch of road and the mixing of concrete will be done at this point, from where it will be trucked to the point where the paving is in progress.

The pouring of concrete on the same road but between Bloomington and El-lettsville is to start at the Owens farm sometime this week—Spencer World.

GOVERNORS END ANNUAL CONFERENCE

APPROVE DISCUSSION OF NON-CONTROVERSIAL SUBJECTS
FOR 1932 MEETING

OLD OFFICERS ARE RE-ELECTED

Action Thereby Officially Disapproved of Demand Made By Maryland Executive

FRENCH LICK, Ind., June 4, (UP) —An old rule that when governors get together they may discuss only "non-controversial" subjects had the approval today of more than 20 state executives who met here for their 23rd annual conference.

Before adjourning last night after three days of sessions, the governors re-elected all officials of their organizations and thereby disapproved officially the demand of Gov. Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland that hereafter they break away from the old rule.

Ritchie contended that as representatives of the people, the governors should discuss those subjects "in which the people are most vitally interested." He named prohibition and unemployment as examples. Other governors objected that the great difference in politics of the various executives would not permit this and that such a change would lead to much controversy without any good result.

Ritchie was supported principally by Gov. Floyd B. Olson of Minnesota who took an extreme view and urged that hereafter the program committee select "nothing but controversial subjects."

A majority of the governors agreed, however, that the old rule was better and expressed their approval of this year's "non-controversial" program by re-electing all members of the executive committee.

There members were Gov. Norman S. Case of Rhode Island, chairman; Gov. George H. Dern, Utah; Gov. John G. Pollard, Virginia; Gov. Henry S.
Caulfield, Missouri; Gov. Franklin D.
Roosevelt, New York; Gov. Harry G.
Leslie, Indiana, treasurer; and former governor Cary A. Hardee, Florida, secretary.

Governors Leslie and Roosevelt spoke at a banquet last night which ended the conference.

"Seed" Booked For Granada At Request Of Theater Patrons

A novel method of finding out just what pictures Granada Theater patrons really want to see was conducted recently by Jimmie Bittles, manager of the local movie house. Mr. Bittles sent out postal cards which carried the following questions: "Name in order three pictures you would like to see;" "Name three of your favorite movie stars;" and "Where are you accustomed to seeing our advertising."

Of the several hundred cards sent out, 35 percent were returned with "Seed" as one of the three popular choices. This was by far the most popular request, the next most popular being requested by less than 20 percent. Many had this film first in their list of request pictures.

Another interesting item was the popularity of such players as Will Rogers, Norma Shearer, Marlene Dietrich and others. Of the cards returned, 70 percent stated they saw the Granada advertising in The Daily Banner.

As a result, "Seed" was booked by Mr. Bittles and will start Sunday at the Granada in-keeping with the new policy to please the patrons in every way possible. The production, although new and by far the most expensive to be shown here in Indiana, will be presented at the regular prices.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning 'Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks pink, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels, doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels, doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels, doesn't digest.

It takes these good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel up and up. They contain wonderful, famous, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Repeat a course.

RUSSELLVILLE MAN'S BROTHER PASSES AWAY

LAFAYETTE, Ind., June 4.—Death claimed Charles Almus Marsteller, of West Stadium Road, life-long resident of this city and member of one of the prominent pioneer families of this community, Sunday evening at 9:30 o'clock at the Home hospital. An unexpected heart attack superinduced by double bronchial pneumonia, was the immediate cause of death.

Mr. Marsteller was united in marriage to Miss Lorena Pyke of Lafayette, March 1, 1912, and since that time has been engaged in agricultural pursuits on his farm on West Stadium road. The widow and one brother, George Emerson Marsteller, of Russellville, are the only survivors.

According to the affidavit Harris is alleged to have embezzled $28 belonging to the McCammon garage.

The affidavit charges that Harris, while in the employ of the garage in the capacity of radio salesman, collected and kept $28 to which the garage was entitled.

COLLECTIVE PURCHASING BY FARMERS ON INCREASE

Activities in cooperative purchasing by farmers over the state are on the upgrade, according to I. H. Hull, manager, Indiana Farm Bureau Cooperative Association, Indianapolis, who says that the gas tax collected by the sixty affiliated units from sales during April amounted to $50,763.24. A check for this amount representing the largest gasoline sales for the farmer-owned cooperatives in their history, was recently turned over to the state auditor representing four cents a gallon on the total volume of gasoline handled during that month.

There are sixty farmer-owned bulk oil stations in fifty-eight counties of the state through which members of the farm bureau secure their supplies of gasoline, kerosene and motor oils. In April 259 cars of gasoline and kerosene were cooperatively distributed through these local stations to farmers, the most of which was used in seeding the spring crops. Although the sales of April constitute a record for these farmer-owned stations, it is known that the May volume exceeded it considerably but a complete report for that month will not be available for a few days.

A large share of the gasoline consumed by farmers during the past two or three months has been for use in tractors and although it was necessary for consumers to pay the tax when the fuel was purchased, they will be reimbursed later by the state auditor as the revenue is retained only on such gasoline as is consumed in highway transportation.

The Indiana Farm Bureau Cooperative Association and affiliated county units are operated not for profit and all earnings are remitted to members annually in the form of patronage refunds.

This petroleum products project of the farm bureau is one of the latest to be established and during the past two years has made very rapid progress. A majority of the local stations over the state have been established during that time.

Consider your Adam's Apple!!* Don't Rasp Your Throat With Harsh Irritants

"Reach for a LUCKY instead"

The great Lord Tennyson in a beautiful poem refers to a woman's Adam's Apple as "The warm white apple of her throat." Consider your Adam's Apple. Touch it—your Adam's Apple—That is your larynx—your voice box—it contains your vocal chords. When you consider your Adam's Apple you are considering your throat—your vocal chords. Protect the delicate tissues within your throat. Be careful in your choice of cigarettes. Don't rasp your throat with harsh irritants! Reach for a LUCKY instead. Here in America LUCKY STRIKE is the only cigarette which brings you the added benefit of the exclusive "TOASTING" Process, which includes the use of modern Ultra Violet Rays. It is this exclusive process that expels certain harsh irritants present in all raw tobaccos. These expelled irritants are sold to manufacturers of chemical compounds. They are not present in your LUCKY STRIKE. And so we say "Consider your Adam's Apple."

ST. LOUIS HOTEL BURNS

ST. LOUIS, June 4 (UP)—More than 75 guests of the Beers hotel, a 50-year old brick structure in the uptown theatre district, were forced to flee in their nightclothes at 4 A. M. today when fire broke out in the furnace room, filled corridors with smoke and destroyed a portion of the building.

Several women were carried down fire escapes. Among them was 92-year-old Mrs. Theresa Caragien. She was reported in serious condition due to shock after being overcome by smoke.

Many of the guests lost all their belongings and watched the fire from the street clad only in nightclothes and blankets. A neighboring hotel and a theatre were used as temporary quarters.

The fire broke out in the basement of the hotel, spread up a chimney passage to the fifth floor and gained headway there before discovered.

MEDAL FOR OPERATOR

CLINTON, Ind., June 4 (UP)—The calmness and courage displayed by Hazel H. Haase, chief telephone operator, during a police chase for bank bandits, has won for her the Vail medal, it was announced here. The award will be presented within a week, telephone officials said.

The citation upon which the national recognition was based read, "for initiative resourcefulness and intelligent using of telephone service in protecting the public interest."

When Miss Haase learned of the hunt for bandits who had robbed the Citizens' State bank here, she took a place at the switchboard and kept officers in the neighboring towns constantly informed of the trail of the bandits. She relayed telephone calls from farmers and persons along the bandits' route to county officials. Through Miss Haase's assistance, officers were able to draw a police net around the fugitives, resulting in their capture.

ROTARIAN BATTLES TO OVERCOME ONE-VOTE JINX

EL PASO, Tex., June 4, (UP)—Stanley Stretton will have to overcome a one-vote jinx before he can become president of the El Paso Rotary club.

In the last election he lost by only one vote to B. L. Lewis.

Last year he lost by only one vote to Oscar Allen.

GROWN old and tired of adventuring, Alfred Aloysius Horn, who had traded on the rivers of Africa before Livingston and Stanley, finds refuge in a doo house at Johannesburg in the Transvaal and earns his living by making and peddling wire kitchen utensils. One day he called at the home of Ellulodia Lewis, famous South African novelist, and she induced him to write the story of his early life. The famous book "Trader Horn," a best-seller all over the world, was the result of his writing and her editing. In his story, which is appearing serially in this paper for twenty-one days, Trader Horn tells of adventures with savage beasts and wild cannibal tribes. The quaint spelling of Trader Horn and his habit of rambling away from his story to tell of interesting details of his former life add to the charm of the narrative.

The Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture, "Trader Horn," filmed in Africa, is based on the story of his adventures with Nina T., the White Goddess of the Borgia.

Sinclair Yields to the Natives

I wrote to little Peru of course and explained how Nina herself had planned the getaway, and do you know to my great surprise in his next letter he declared he was going to be in at the stealing with me, and as he was shortly coming of age, he was going to see me out of that God-forsaken land the west coast. Money he said was no object I must come and sojourn with him where he would build a place in healthy and romantic Peru, where we could love and enjoy life as it should be, with my stolen Goddess of high degree, and where they would both admire my wife and my ruby.

When he saw Nina T. in Little Peru's arms, a hot wave of jealousy passed through the heart of the trader.

I could only laugh heartily, as I knew his nature so well, British and Inca it was just as I expected. But I wondered if I should tell of my fairy but I never did. In fact he admired my sketch of Nina which he declared was Al. Somehow I felt that if he once saw my Belle Savage he would succumb, heart silver mines and all.

Up the Ogowe

And Nina had such simple winning ways I thought it would be wise to warn him but I didn't, anyway come eventually he did not before I advised him, and whether he succumbed or not we shall see later on in the story. I piloted several steamers up, without mishap or trouble of any kind and as trade was booming these always came down with full cargoes.

The Pioneer I conducted up the River Ogowe as far as John Ernys who did quite a large trade and had his store a large one in the Bimbov country. On my return I made ready for following De Brazza the posting traders up country. I had quite a big flotilla with me and selecting a few good ivory and rubber traders we bade goodbye to Adoninango and Herr Shift and started up stream, great salute firings from the stations and flag dropping. I had good trading cargo and good men, and we were well armed and provisioned for a long trip to anywhere. Before I left both Herr Shift and Sinclair told me I should make good and so it proved out.

Free Trade

We parted the following morning and were at Samquite long before sundown. We made a fond goodbye to Samquite and in a few days we pulled up at Lence Island where I made a fortified post at the east end of the island. This being finished I laid out my large stock of goods for trade and I had not long to wait before the Mpungues and Oshebas commenced to flock in.

Thus I made a free trade island and I had a better trade than I expected both in ivory and rubber. I made frequent shipments to Adoninango and my goods always arrived safely. Apaguees people arrived and established a small town near by in the country vacated by the Oshebas. I had close traders up country and all did well.

I had news of De Brazza from the Okandas, and he had opposition from the fighting tribes of the Ilge (?) district, but his machine guns and rifles had proved too much for these savages and he eventually arrived with his donkey troop and his liberated slaves at Brazzaville.

Ordered to Quit

Thus all went well for a few months till a large consignment of goods coming up the river to my depot had the misfortune to come up the side of the river inhabited by the Bimbov. All went well till they reached Ngogudimas town the head chief of these cannibals. Here they were attacked and the whole of the valuable consignment was captured by this chief.

I heard the news a few days after this event and immediately despatched news of the occurrence to Sinclair who sent me an answer that the Chief had promised to send back the goods intact as well as the prisoners if he, Sinclair, would agree to send me no more supplies and recall me. If not he would not do this. He threatened to do his worst against him and if necessary he would raise his tribe and attack the chief depot.

Sinclair consented to his demands and sent me instructions to come down the river at once and save myself as my accounts were already largely in my favor, and for my sake he would like me to return without delay.

Defiance

There I was stuck. My pet project for which I had labored hard was washed and I was obliged to acknowledge defeat. As I had little or nothing left in my store I made a resolution to ship the balance down the river and thus obey orders but abandon the post I would not; making the excuse to Sinclair that I had outstanding debts which I would collect in spite of his agreement. And if I had a chance, I would pay back the Cannibal Chief for his insolence.

I had not long to wait. I collected my outstanding debts and called in my traders who all came down the river in due time and I explained everything to them. All those who wished to go down the river to Adoninango I let go reserving only such men and canoe boys as were a necessity to man my four largest canoes.

I then formed hunting parties and we hunted elephants and other animals on Apague's side of the river. I sent a despatch to Apague explaining all and told him to advise me of any move either on our Chief trading station or in event of Ngogudema making a move up stream to attack me to let him come as I was sure to give him a beating. This he promised to do.

When a Goddess Wins

Furthermore she told me she would slowly shut one eye and at this I smiled but I told her I thought this was a sensible way of getting clear. Yes she said and after that I shall come away from the Enago (house) just as I am dressed as it must all be done quickly to make all sure. I shall dive in the water without sound and shall climb to the bank near the leondu tree (great cotton tree). Then as I can run fast you will pull for the middle of the stream. The darkness and speed will help us.

The poor Goddess was really in great earnest and when she asked me to help her I did not refuse. And afterwards made a short hand note in short hand as nearly verbatim as possible of what she had told me.

As Future Events Will Show

she was quite right and as things worked out well on that memorable night, the night I stole her, I always gave her credit for having a better head than I had, as all the plans I could think of were a swift attack on the Holy Men during a visit and carry her off. Lock Invar in a boat whilst the fathers were drunk.

The Lancashire Lass

And I found her plan work out so plainly that Nina must have seen long ago what she was doing. I knew. Anyway she had saved my life by her timely warnings and I was determined on taking her away from that ugly surroundings.

Strange to say although I liked Nina and it would not have taken much to have balanced my loving in her favor then, I could never keep my head about a little blue-eyed lass I had known up in North Lancashire in the country we used to call the Clog and Shawl. She lived close to my grand fathers who was a freethold landholder of Frea, the family of the old East-Spear.

The country especially there was supposed to grow fairies which she told me used to grow from the pond lilies and would stand on the lilies to hear thrushes and skylarks, and I believed her, as she was my great playmate in those days of ringlets, which I wore as well as she.
